INSTRUCTIONS TO BE RETAINED AND READ CAREFULLY BY THE CANDIDATE

INSTRUCTIONS TO GRADE XIII CANDIDATES

1.—(1) The form of application for the Grade XIII examinations may be obtained (a) from the principal of a high, vocational, or continuation school, (b) from the principal of a private school or college, (c) from the public school inspector or superintendent of schools, (d) from the registrars of the six universities of Ontario.

(2) All applications properly filled out shall be filed not later than May 1st with the principal of the school at which the candidate proposes to write the examination or in the case of the University of Toronto centre with the registrar of that institution.

2. Each candidate shall satisfy the presiding officer as to his personal identity, and any person detected in attempting to impersonate a candidate shall be reported to the Department. The presiding officer is authorized to refuse the application of any candidate who presents himself at any centre other than that nearest his usual place of residence, unless the candidate's explanation of his course in so presenting himself is in every way satisfactory to the presiding officer.

3. Candidates shall be in their appointed places before the hours fixed for the commencement of each examination. If a candidate be not present till after the appointed time, he shall not be allowed any additional time. No candidate shall be permitted, on any pretence whatever, to enter the room after the expiration of an hour from the commencement of the examination. The presiding officer is authorized to refuse admission even within the hour, if the candidate's explanation is in any sense unsatisfactory, or if he has reason to suspect collusion between the newly-admitted candidate and other candidates.

4. A charge of One Dollar shall be collected by the presiding officer from a candidate who fails to make application by the prescribed date (May 1st). The presiding officer shall see that the application of such candidate meets the requirements of the Regulations before admitting him to the examination.

5. A candidate shall not leave the room within one hour after the distribution of the question papers in any subject; and, if he leave after that period, he shall not be permitted to return during the examination in such subject.

6. Every candidate shall conduct himself in strict accordance with the instructions.

He shall not take into the room or have in or on his desk anything from which he may derive assistance. He shall not talk to another candidate; he shall not give or receive assistance of any kind whatever. Should he violate these instructions all his answer papers shall be cancelled.

Should the presiding officer obtain clear evidence of the violation of these instructions at the time of its occurrence, he shall cause the candidate concerned to leave the room immediately; he shall strike his name from the list of candidates. If, however, the evidence be not complete at the time, or be obtained after the close of the examination, the presiding officer shall report the case to the registrar.

7. A candidate shall not use any paper or examination book other than that provided. He shall write the name of the subject of the examination very distinctly at the top of his book. He shall not, however, write his name or any distinguishing mark or symbol on his book, nor shall he tear any paper from his book nor insert therein any matter not pertinent to the examination.

8. Candidates are also reminded that the presiding officer shall not make any explanation or other statement regarding the probable meaning of any question or give any advice as to what questions should be answered by the candidates or the manner in which a question should be answered.

At the expiration of an examination a candidate may bring to the attention of the presiding officer any error which appears to have been made in a question paper and at the close of the examinations the presiding officer shall report to the registrar any error in a question paper which is brought to his attention.

9. Every candidate shall write his answers and full solutions on the ruled side of the leaves of his examination book or books (if more than one be needed); he shall use the unruled side in preparing the answers in rough where necessary. He shall fold his examination book (or books) once across, place it in the envelope provided by the presiding officer, seal the envelope, write on the outside of the envelope the subject of the examination only, and on the slip provided, his name in full (surname preceding), and then securely fasten the slip to the envelope, as instructed by the presiding officer. Each candidate shall hand in all the answer books he has used.

10. Where the illness of a candidate affects his examination, he shall request the presiding officer to report full particulars to the registrar and within two days after the close of the examinations the presiding officer shall report to the registrar full particulars of such illness.

The report of the presiding officer shall be accompanied by:

- (a) a medical certificate stating the nature of the illness and its time and duration; and
- (b) details of any other occurrence which interfered with the candidate's examination.
